BULLDOG CLUB OF AMERICA CODE OF ETHICS

Members of BCA have an obligation to protect the welfare and the best interest of their breed by conducting themselves in a manner designed to reflect credit to themselves, their breed, and the BCA.

Members who exhibit are expected to observe the highest standards of sportsmanship, conduct themselves in such a manner as to reflect positively on the sport of showing dogs: and exhibit good will at all shows and obedience trials. Members who contemplate breeding a litter, or who allow the use of their stud for the same purpose, shall direct their efforts toward producing dogs of quality, of even temperament, vigorous, and free of health problems. They shall be familiar with the Bulldog breed and its BCA/AKC approved standard, and breed only those specimens which conform to it.

Members shall not engage in false or misleading advertising or misrepresentation of their breed, nor shall they malign their competition by making false or misleading statements regarding their competitors' dogs, breeding practices or person.

Blatant disregard for the standards set out in this code shall be considered unacceptable behavior and not supported by the Bulldog Club of America.

After you have attended two meetings, submit your application, along with your first year's membership dues to the Recording Secretary, your application will be read and then voted on at the following meeting.
